Another Cardon Line: CATTRE ANCESTRY

By Boyd Cardon

This article corrects and expands the CATTRE articles appearing in PFO Report No. 10 Spring 1997 page 1 and 2 and PFO Report No 17 March 99 page 1 & 2. There are two main CATTRE lines, which surely merge just one or two generations before surviving notary records begin.

Key: All people were born in Angroga, Torino, Italy. PP = Piedmont Project. Direct Cardon ancestors are in bold. All surnames are given in French, the Waldensian preference. Add one to the number to get the spouse; double the number to get the father.

The Piedmont Project gives the birth of Marguerite Cattre as 20 Apr 1700, dau of Guillaume Cattre and Marie Coisson.

1. RIVOIRE Ancestry: The AVONDET Line

The Piedmont Project traces the Rivoires' Avondet ancestry to Jacob Avondet (abt 1669-1743) of Roccapiatta. His wife is identified in the parish registers only by her first name, Anne.

The notary records permit us to identify Anne's maiden name and to trace both lines back another two generations.

Key: b=born, d=died, Es=Esuli, md=married, prob=probably, wd=will dated; PP = Piedmont Project. When known, Esuli dates are used, as they were recorded in the person's own lifetime. Rivoire direct ancestors appear in bold.

FAMILY SUMMARIES

Suzanne AVONDET PP: b abt 1670, d 1721; prob md abt 1695. She married Philippe FORNERON by 1695. The notary records permit us to identify Suzanne's parents and to trace her ancestry.

CARDON Ancestry: The BELLION Line

Our January 2000 and December 2000 issues presented the Cardons’ MALAN ancestry. Jean (Gioanni) MALAN married Ester BELLION, daughter of Michele and Isabella MAET. The MAET line was presented in our June 2000 issue. We’re now pleased to provide the BELLION ancestry, based on research by Reverend Jean Jalla, a Waldensian minister of the last century. The names on these lines are presented as Rev. Jalla provided them, generally in their French rendition.
