Annual Financial and Research Report

So far in 1999, we've sent our researcher $1,000 and received four more research reports from him. We have only eleven more reports before finishing the Luserna San Giovanni records themselves. The remaining villages will have fewer volumes each.

We owe Giovanni Cena $3,000 for research completed. We therefore need your tax-deductible donation soon. Thanks for your on-going support.

Please make checks payable to PFO, and send to:

Early Cattare Family Members

The Cardons, Malans, and Stalles all have ancestors with the surname Cattare. In this issue, we highlight what we have so far learned about two of the early branches of this family.

BRANCH I: So far in our research, the earliest mentioned ancestor of this branch was Gioanetto ("Johnny") CATTRE, who was dead by 1621. His son Gullielmino was also dead by then. But this Gullielmino left at least two sons who reached maturity: Gioanni and Daniele.

Daniele apparently left fewer descendants than did Gioanni, so let's consider him first. He was still living in 1643, at which time he had a daughter Maria. His wife, but not necessarily the mother of Maria, was Gioanna RICHA daughter of deceased Pietro. If he lived that long, he may have been the Daniele son of deceased Guglielmino who married Susana COISONE by 1669; Susana was daughter of deceased Daniele who in turn was son of deceased Gioanni COISONE.

His brother Gioanni CATTRE was a community leader, noted as "honorable" (just as we describe mayors using that term). He made his will in 1641, naming his brother Daniele as well as his own five daughters and one deceased son, also named Daniele.

Gioanni's daughters were (1) Gioanna, who married by 1625 Daniele ODDINO son of Gioanni (son of deceased Antonio); Gioanna was likely dead by 1641. (2) Susanna, still living in 1641, who married Daniele CHIANFORANO in 1605. (3) Madalena, also still living in 1641, who married Daniele ODDINO son of deceased Gioanni, son himself of deceased Vietto. (4) Maria, dead by 1641, wife of Giacomo COISONE son of Pietro (son of deceased Giacomo). (5) Catterina, widow in 1641 of Pietro BEZZONE son of deceased Colletto.

Gioanni's son Daniele, not to be confused with his uncle Daniele son of Guglielmino, was dead by 1641. Gioanni's will in that year names Daniele's widow, Catterina BUFFA daughter of deceased Gioanni; her brothers were Pietro, Colletto, and Lorenzo. Daniele and Catterina had two surviving children, Gioanni and Gioanna. Both were minors in 1641 but adult by 1648. In 1655, this Gioanni renounced his inheritance because it was riddled with debt. That no doubt reflects the difficult times the Waldensians faced at this period; 1655 was the year of the infamous St Bartholomew's Day massacre.

BRANCH II: The second early Cattare branch begins with a Gioanni ("John"), probably a brother, half-brother, or cousin of Gioanetto of Branch A. This Gioanni also had a son named Gullielmino, and both father and son were dead by 1613. This Gullielmino married a Catterina, and he probably had a brother named Michele.

This Gullielmino had at least two sons and two daughters. The daughters were (1) Gina, who married Pietro ODDINO son of deceased Gioanni, who was son of deceased Vietto (and thus this Pietro was brother to Daniele ODDINO who married Madalena CATTRE of Branch I). (2) Margarita or Maria, who married Antonio BENEDETTO son of deceased Francesco.

Gullielmino's sons were Gioanni, also called honorable, and Daniele. This Honorable Gioanni made his will in 1613 but was still alive in 1627. His wife was Maria, and they had at least four daughters and one son, minors in 1613. The daughters were (1) Madalena, who married Esaya BERTINO son of deceased Colletto. (2) Catterina, who married Gioanni MONASTERO, who died by 1654 and was son of deceased Micaelle. (3) Gioanna and (4) Margarita.

Honorable Gioanni's son was Gullielmino, undoubtedly the tax collector of that name in 1655, town counselor in 1663, mayor in 1667, and whose will was dated 1675. He married an otherwise unknown Gioanna CATTRE daughter of a Gioanni, and they had six children: Maria (married Pietrio CHIAVVIA), Daniele, Gioanni, Pietro, Davide, and Stefano. Daniele, son of Gullielmino and Catterina and grandson of the first Giovanni, was probably dead by 1648. He married, perhaps as a second wife, Gioanna CHIAVVIA, in January 1619. She was daughter of Giorgio CHIAVVIA and his wife Gioanna COISONE (daughter of deceased Bartholomeo COISONE and his wife Fiorina), and may have been the mother of Daniele CATTRE's son Giovanni CATTRE, later mentioned in a permutation with Steffano CHIAVVIA son of deceased Gioanni, and perhaps Gioanna's nephew.

Temple ordinance work is in progress for these people. It is also hoped that genealogists in the various families will connect their own Catre lines into these families.

Our Families in San Giovanni

We continue here our notarial records highlights. Because so many of the surnames appear on the pedigrees of our separate families, we present them in alphabetical order. This avoids having to repeat them. We also present the extractions by separate volume to simplify the reports.

Numbers in parentheses indicate the page number in the volume and the date of the act. NOTE: The year attached to the volume number is when the notary officially deposited the record—not necessarily the year in which the original record was made. Sometimes it is the same year, but often the notary (because he had to pay a fee each time) delayed registering some acts.
