LOUIS PHILLIP BEUS AND MARY TERRY

DESCENDANTS

LOUIS PHILLIP BEUS AND MARY TERRY

Louis Phillip Beus

Louis Phillip Beus was born on the 5th of July 1849, in Pramol, Piedmont, Italy, a son of Michael Beus and Marianne Combe. He was the eighth child born to the family. The history of the Michael Beus family, their conversion and emigration to America and their trek across the plains to Utah in a handcart company is told elsewhere in this book. We pick up his life story as a boy among the pioneers of Utah.

Louis Phillip Beus and Mary Terry on their wedding day

Louis and the other children of the Michael's family had very little schooling. There was a little one-room school with logs to sit on for benches. Louis attended this for about two years then he was too busy helping the family make a living to continue. He never attended school again. The girls and women had to spin and make their own clothes for the family. The boys were kept busy in the fields.

The family was also among the first to raise flax and make linen.

Louis and Mary Terry, daughter of Joel and Roema Garner Terry, were married the 8th of November, 1876. They built a log home on the property now incorporated in the campus of Weber College. They lived there for a little over eight years.

The fall of 1884 they had a very good crop of grain ready to harvest. New machinery was coming on the market at this time for harvesting, so Louis decided to mortgage his crop and home to buy one of these new machines. He brought it home and was to start harvesting the next morning, but that evening there was a terrific wind and hail storm that destroyed his entire crop. The mortgage company came and took everything they owned; they were even going to come in and take their furniture but Mary stood at the door with an axe and dared them to.

While Louis and Mary were in Ogden there were four children born to them: Louis Learnon, on the 17th of November 1878; Clarence Paul, on the 4th of April 1880; Michael Edmund, on the 17th of October 1881 and Mary Venoa, on the 1st of September 1883.

In the late fall of 1884 or early 1885 they came to Soda Springs, Idaho where Albert was born on the 9th of February 1885. Louis hauled freight from Soda to Caribou for about ne year then the family went back to Uintah, Utah and stayed with Mary's mother. Here Iona was born on the 9th of October 1886. When Iona was six weeks old, Louis moved his family back to Soda Springs. The first year and a half was spent at "Lower Town," while Louis worked for Herbert Horsley, Sr. getting out logs. For this labor he received enough logs to build a three-room house, then he moved his family into it.

On the 2nd of October 1888 another son, Orlen Odell, was born. He died the following June.

During the winter of 1890-91 there was a terrible epidemic of diphtheria in Soda and all the Beus family were stricken. This disease caused the air passages to become coated with a membrane formed by a fibrous inflammatory exudation. When Mary Venoa, their oldest daughter, lay very ill with the disease she began to vomit and her mother raised her up in her arms and, seeing that she was choking on this membrane, Mary reached down in Venoa's throat and took hold of the membrane and tried to pull it from her throat; but in so doing it broke and the poison from it went back into her throat and she laid back in her mother's arms dead. This was on February 12, 1891. Two days before, on the 10th of February Clarence Paul had died. Because the family was quarantined and the people were so afraid of the disease, no one dared come near the home. Mary had to wash and lay both of her children out and make all their burial clothes while Louis built the two boxes for them. Mary lined the boxes and the children were put in them. Then Louis nailed the lids down. After this was completed Mr. Thomas Horsley and William Clifford waited outside to take them and bury them. Since no one could come in the house and those inside could not go out, they had to push the boxes out through the window. Mr. Horsley and Mr. Clifford took them up to the Cedars east of town and buried them. Then on February 18, just one week later their oldest child, Louis Learnon, died. Louis and Mary again had to tend to all the preparations for burial.

Michael Edmund, the third son, was the next to have the disease. Dr. Kirkwood, being the family doctor at that time, had given Mary medicine for the children, but when Louis wanted to give some to Edmund, the boy looked up at his father and said, "Daddy, do I have to take it and go where the rest of them have gone?" Louis began to cry and said "No, son, you nor any of the rest of you have to take it." So he went over to the stove and dropped the bottle of medicine in. Then he was beside himself with grief and worry, not knowing what to do about the sick children. So he went out to the barn and knelt down and prayed to his Heavenly Father and asked Him to direct him in what to do for the children. He said he heard a voice say, "Go and give him a little tobacco." Louis didn't use tobacco, so he didn't have any in the house. But he called to Tom Horsley, who lived across the street and asked him if he had some tobacco. Tom came to the gate and laid some on the gate post and then when he had retreated to a safe distance, Louis went out and got it. Hurrying into the house he gave Edmund just a small amount. Edmund no more than swallowed it than he began to vomit. This caused the coated membrane to come up. Because of this he was saved from the fate of the other three. But he had such a bad throat after, that it was not until a month later that he could eat solids. Throughout his life Edmund had a lot of trouble with his throat. Louis doctored the rest of the children himself and they didn't lose any more of them from this terrible disease.

The next summer someone reported to Louis that the badgers had dug a hole near the head of one of the boxes where the children were buried. In fact, it was so deep that the box was showing. Louis was so worried because he didn't have enough money at that time to buy material to fence the lot where they were buried to keep the animals out. But he did take a shovel and threw it over his shoulder and walked to the cedars to try to repair the graves. On his way home he was still very despondent and worried, but he said he heard the voices of his three children telling him not to worry that everything was all right.

In 1895 Louis took a desert claim on some land in Wood Canyon and moved his family again to homestead the place. Later he added to this by purchasing more land adjoining. Besides farming, Louis operated a sheepshearing and dipping corral. He also operated a lime kiln on his place where he burned lime and sold it for building purposes. During this period of about fourteen years, Mary, with the help of her daughters and a couple of hired girls, cooked for the men employed at the corral and also for the men employed at a sulphur mine near their home. Sometimes there were as many as 75 to 100 men at the meal.

During this period six more children were born: Rudeth, on the 8th of July 1890; Wilburn, on the 14th of October 1892; Mohleta, on the 17th of July 1894; Emma Matilda, on the 26th of December 1900, Wanda Anetta, on the 13th of October 1902; Leslie Ernest, on the 30th of July 1904, making thirteen in all.

The winters were spent in town in order to send the children to school.

As Louis's sons grew up, they filed on homesteads around the Beus farm until eventually, the family owned and farmed all of the Wood Canyon Country.

About 1902 Louis sold the log home in town and bought a house from Charles Terry and moved it to the present location, 251 East First North, now occupied by Mrs. Edmund (Grace) Beus a daughter in-law.

About 1913 Louis and Mary started a public laundry in town. Mary and her girls worked in this for three years. Here Mohleta got her hand in the wringer, which resulted in her having a crippled hand the rest of her life.

The day after Thanksgiving in 1916 Mary had a stroke. She lived for three years after this and died on the 29th of July 1920. After Mary died Wanda and Louis stayed in the home in town while Wanda finished her schooling. The first and second year after Mary's death Wanda and Louis gave board and room to a high school teacher, Miss Elsie Hewlett. Wanda finished her high school in 1923. Soon after, she went to California to stay with her sister Emma and go to business school. Louis lived with his son Rudeth on the farm during the summer. In November he went to California, arriving there in time to spend Thanksgiving with his family. He and Wanda and Leslie got a place by themselves in Wilmington and Louis stayed until spring. He then returned to Soda and lived again with Rudeth on the farm until fall. He returned once again, this time to Long Beach, where he lived with Wanda and Stirley, her husband. When spring came he returned again to Soda. That fall, 1925 he went back to California again and stayed with Wanda. She had a son, Stirley, Jr., now. That winter the baby came down with the measles and was taking convulsions.

Louis came in where the boy was and layed his hands upon him and administered to him. Louis had great faith in prayer and manifested it many times in his life. The baby got better at once.

In January 1926, his son-in-law, Jack Densley, was seriously ill with spinal meningitis. So Louis left California and went to Bingham, Utah to be with him. Here he his great faith in prayer and the power of healing. They had isolated Jack in a hospital room away to one end of the hospital because of the dreaded disease. But Louis went to Jack's room and found him in a very serious condition. He then administered to him. Louis felt the power of death so strongly that he refused to leave Jack's room all night, saying that if he did Jack would die. After remaining all night with him in prayer he began to improve and was finally healed. Later, Louis came to Soda Springs again, spending the summer on the farm with his son, Rudeth.

Wanda and her baby also came back to Salt Lake that spring and stayed in Salt Lake that summer. That fall Louis, Wanda and Stirley, Jr. left the latter part of October for Long Beach, California. This time Louis stayed until July of 1927. He was very sick at this time and he wanted to come home for he knew his time was short. So Fay, Emma and Beatrice Beus brought him home. The doctor had advised them not to bring him. He said he would never live to make the trip. But Louis wanted to come so badly he told them that if they would bring him he would not die on the way. When they reached St. George he was very low, so they stopped and had him administered to. He improved at once. He raised up and recognized the mountains and knew he was near home. When they reached Soda, they took him to his son, Edmund's home where he stayed for a week. Then he was brought to his daughter, Iona's, hhome, where he lived for just two days. He died the 12th of August, 1927 in Soda Springs, Idaho.

All his life Louis loved to walk when he was tired or weary. He said it relaxed him. While he was in California he used to walk to the ocean nearly every day and watch the waves and think of his voyage on the ocean when he was a boy. He could never figure out why it would cloud up so much in California and then never rain. This always puzzled him. He loved to watch the clouds and then try to predict the rain. He used to get up very early in the mornings and walk to the beach before breakfast. He happened to be on the beach the morning that Charles A. Lindbergh landed in Paris from his non-stop flight across the ocean. They had stations set up at the beach to receive the reports of his landing. Louis was at the beach this morning and he marvelled at this accomplishment, that a plane could fly across the ocean. Especially when he reflected on his own long voyage across the ocean as a boy.

All his life he had a great love for the gospel. And he had a strong testimony. At the present time, 1959, he has 13 children, 6 of whom are still living; fifty-two grandchildren, thirty-eight of whom are still alive; one-hundred-sixteen great grandchildren, one-hundred-nine of whom are still living and fifty-three great great grandchildren, all living -- making a grand total of two-hundred-thirty-four descendants, of whom two-hundred-six are living at this time. [Twenty-five years later, at the printing of this book, the figure is probably about eight-hundred living descendants. -- Ed.]

ALBERT BEUS AND DORA JANE PANTING

Albert Beus

My father, Albert Beus, was born 9 February 1885 of wonderful parents. They were both hard working, kind, honest and religious.

His father, Louis Phillip Beus, and mother, Mary Terry, were married 8 November 1876 and lived in Ogden until 1884. Four children were born in Ogden. They moved to Soda Springs and father was born here in February 1885. He was the fifth child out of the thirteen children.

Albert went to school in Soda Springs for what little schooling he had. He said he just got there and that was all, but I must say that he was real good on the mathametical and figures of any kind. At adding he was a whiz. It seemed he had a very good head on him, for most any thing.

They lived in Soda Springs until 1900, then Grandfather homesteaded out northeast of Soda, in what is known as Wood Canyon.

The sulfur works which was next to their place started up in 1902 and Grandfather did masonry work there and Grandmother boarded the men that worked there, and of course the children were always busy helping. In those days the children were taught to work and like it. They had chores to do and they kept busy and out of mischief. I guess that is why all the Beus family are so ambitious and like to work, because they were taught young, and that is the time we all learn, then is when it is easy to learn.

It wasn't long until Largillieres built a shearing corral on Grandfather's land, just below the house. They brought their sheep there to be sheared from all around. It was the most up-to-date shearing outfit around. Thirty shearers worked there. Grandmother ran a boarding house for all of them. As a boy, father used to wait on the tables and haul wool. We have some pictures of him by the big table. It has a white table cloth on and all set for the men. He worked very hard and for fifty cents a day, and long hours too.

In 1905 Father took up a homestead just south of his father's. He planted crops for several years and they just froze out every year. Uncle Edmond Beus homesteaded just north and east of Grandfather's. There was a Will Henderson and a Mr. Quincy that had a homestead in the mouth of Wood Canyon. Henderson sold out and went to Preston to run a livery barn. Grandfather got it and proved up on it. He planted lots of fruit trees: apples, cherries, plums and others. Some years they did real well. Their worst trouble was the rabbits barking the trees in the winter. We really had winters in those days, with lots of snow.

Father said he could ride upon the hill just south of the sulfur works and see sheep camps in every direction, when it was shearing time. "I counted thirty at one time," he said. There were no forest permits in those days.

Father and mother were married 22 December 1907 at Grandmother Panting's place. They lived just below the shearing corral about a mile. In 1911 the shearing corral burned down. Father saw it from his house. He and his man rode up there, but it was too near gone. It was about 8:00 o'clock at night, so then they rode to town about six miles to tell the Largillieres. They never rebuilt it. They soon went into the banking and mercantile business with Peck and Enwright.

I can remember how my mother told me how the old Mrs. Largilliere used to take a sack and go out and gather the wool off the sage brush and fences, and she did real well. If people now days were that conservative they would be much better off, instead of so much waste all the time.

In 1908 their first baby was born, and what fine boy it was. But in 1911 they lost this baby. They had three small ones at the time he died: Vern, Albert Lloyd and Pearl.

Father started in the cattle business, and he always had lots of men around for mother to cook for. He spent some of the winters away from home, when he had to take his cattle away to feed on the desert.

Albert Beus and Dora Jane Panting Beus with their son, Lynn

In 1917 they lost their second boy, Albert Lloyd. They had seven children by this time, counting a set of twins that were born premature.

In 1918 Father took his cattle to Cokeville to feed, and he gathered cattle all along the way to take up with his, because there was not enough hay here to winter them. That spring the bank took a foreclosure on the ones he had picked up to take with him. Father got them for the feed bill and taking care of them. The bank turned them to him. Then the year he took his cattle to Jerome with Collins they had to buy hay for $35.00 a ton and had a real long winter. That just all but broke him. They fed 1000 head of cattle and 100 head of horses.

All the land father acquired, which amounts to 2800 acres, he got from mortgage companies or he traded something for. The mahogany hill north of the ranch he traded a team for it.

The folks lived in the old log house and then built on to it until their family was nearly raised. In 1928 Father moved this big house off the Glenn Davis place. George Skinner helped him. It was in the winter time and I remember all the horses and front bob sleighs they had under it. It was really a large nice home.

Father used to run a dairy. He delivered milk to town for 23 years and for a long time at five cents a quart. He furnished cream to Clint Pier for his confectionary store for 13 years. That confectionary was where the Sanders furniture store is now. He had the school bus along with his milk route, until there wasn't any children left to bring to school. My three children were the last children he hauled to school. That was September of 1944, when we left the ranch.

Father took care of John Wallace all one summer, down to Lava Hot Springs in those hot baths. He really thought a lot of John.

He was president of the Henry Stampede for I don't know how long, and a stockholder in it too. He never missed a rodeo. He would load us up in the truck the day before and we would camp out all three days of the rodeo and come back the day after it was over. So we really had a five-day vacation every summer. They used to really have a good time, and show.

In 1946 they built their new home in town and moved off the ranch. That was real hard on Mother because she loved it out there so much. She loved to walk on the hills and gather wild flowers and just enjoy the beauty of the country around. They had one of the most beautiful places in Caribou County.

Father willed it to the two boys, Lyn and Ted, before he died. Then Lynn bought Ted's share of the ranch in a few years.

I never remember Father ever punishing one of us children, but when he said for us to do something we did it. We had a lot of respect for both of our parents. They never raised their voices to us or used foul language. They were always kind and quiet around us. We were taught to respect people and all things around us.

Our ranch was a stopping place for the cattle men to stop when they would take their cattle out in the spring and bring them back again in the fall. It seemed like we always had a bunch around. Mother was always cooking for a bunch. She never knew how many there would be for a meal. She was a very good cook too.

They had a lot of tragedy in their life. They buried five of the seven boys they had, besides the set of premature twins. One died of pneumonia, one drank some formaldehyde they used to disinfect with, one died just after birth, R. J. was fourteen years old and died of spinal meningitis, and one was killed in a car accident when he was just eight months old.

Mother died in April 1959 and my sister and her husband moved into the home and took care of Father until he died. He willed her the home and all the property in town.

He died August 23 1966, at home. He drove his car until about three weeks before he died. He had seventeen grandchildren and twenty-five great-grandchildren at the time of his death.

I am so thankful for my parents and the things they taught me and for the love and joy I received from doing things for them at all times.

-- Eva Beus Butterfield Hopkins, a daughter

Daddy loved horses, rodeos and playing cards at the town pool hall. He owned a large ranch east of Soda Springs. During his early married life besides farming he raised cattle, having a large dairy. We furnished the milk and cream for Soda Springs for many years. Boy what an awful chore that was, all those cows to milk night and morning! Then hours bottling the milk and cream. But Daddy enjoyed taking the milk into town, because as as he was through delivering the milk all over town he would play pinochle for many hours. He later sold the cattle and dairy herd and bought in the sheep business.

Dora Jane Panting

Dora Jane Panting was born 17 November 1885 at Soda Springs, Idaho, the daughter of Christopher Panting and Selina Eliza Reed. She married Albert Beus 23 December 1907 at Soda Springs.

"My mother loved horses -- she was grandfather's little cowboy. Mother had a beautiful voice and would sing all the time. Mother as the age of sixteen went to work for Dr. Kackley at his home, located at 190 E. Hooper Ave. That old home is still standing, but now is an apartment house.

Mother dearly loved the wild flowers and walked through the fields and hills whenever she had a minute to get a breath, to pick wild flowers. I remember for Memorial Day we would always go out on the hills and in the meadow to gather wild flowers for the graves of my brothers. Mother could make such beautiful arrangements out of a few flowers, chokecherry blossoms and pussy willows. Mother was a beautiful woman, quiet and timid, but a wonderful cook and homemaker. Her legs were very bad and caused her much pain.

She had a very sad life while raising her family of twelve children. Her oldest child, a little boy named Vern, about two or three years old, drank some poison. Daddy wasn't home, so mother carried him in her arms and walked to town for help. He died on the way to town.

Albert, the second child, died at the age of about six from a back set with measles.

The twins were premature. They were not given names, and were buried at the ranch. They were the fifth and sixth children.

R. J., just older than I, was a real cowboy. He had a very good looking pony, which was his pride and joy. He lived to reach his freshman year in school, at which time he died a terrible death of spinal meningitis.

Albert and Dora

Lorraine, next to the youngest boy, only lived a few hours. His little body got cold during the time of birth because the Dr. and Aunt Iona Mikesell were working to save mother's life. We nearly lost our mother.

LeRoy, the youngest, at the age of nine months was killed in mother's arms. They were taking a trip to California. There was a car accident and his little neck was broken. Dear Mother was in the hospital badly hurt and unable to see her baby buried."

Mrs. Beus died 27th of April 1959 at Soda Springs, Idaho.

IONA BEUS AND JOHN PORCHER MIKESELL

Iona Beus

I was born in Uintah, Weber County, Utah on the 9th of October 1886 to Louis Phillip Beus and Mary Terry. I was the sixth of thirteen children. My father was born July 5, 1849 at Piedmont, Italy, a son of Michael Beus and Marianne Combe. My mother was born June 7, 1863 at Jordan, Salt Lake, Utah, a daughter of Joel Terry and Roemma Garner.

Iona Beus and John Porcher Mikesell on their wedding day

My father, Louis Phillip Beus and my mother, Mary Terry, were married November 8, 1876.

They were the parents of eight sons and five daughters: Louis Learn, Clarence Paul, Michael Edmund, Mary Venoa, Albert, Iona, Orlan Odell, Rudeth, Wilburn, Mohleta, Emma Matilda, Wanda Annetta and Leslie Ernest.

When I was six weeks old my father moved his family to Soda Springs, Idaho to make their home. The next year and a half they lived in what was known as "Lower Town" while father worked for Herbert Horsley Sr. getting out logs. For this labor he received enough logs to build a three-room house, and moved his family into it in 1888. Later he built on to this house, in the upper town of Soda Springs.

On June 7, 1889 my brother, Orlen Odell died. During the diphtheria epidemic in the winter of 1890-91 two more brothers and a sister died. Clarence Paul died 10 Feb. 1891, Mary Venoa died 12 Feb 1891 and Louis Learn died 18 Feb 1891. They were all buried in the old cemetery in the cedars. This was a hard blow losing four children.

It was hard in those days to make a living for a large family so mother helped by doing washing and ironing for people who came to Soda Springs because of the Soda water and other things. When I was just a small child my mother used to put the ironing board on two chairs so I could reach it and I had to iron the hankies. If I didn't do them good I sure got my fingers cracked and had to do them over.

I started to school when I was seven years old. There were only a few children so one teacher had all the children up to fourth grade and another the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Our amusement was dancing and sleigh riding. There was no movies in those days.

In 1895 my father bought a farm in Wood Canyon, six miles from Soda Springs, and moved his family there during the summer and back to town in the winters so we children could go to school. The winter I was in the seventh and eighth grade I lived with Mrs. Minnie Horsley and Mrs. C. G. Rose, working before and after school for my board and room. I learned to crochet and embroider at this time. I worked for Mrs. Strachen in the millinery trade one summer and went to a class taught by Mrs. Millie Campbell Call. She taught Mexican draw work, hemstitching and embroidery. I remember this class was made up of mostly married women. I was the only young girl in the class, so I felt quite honored because they would take me in this class. I learned to make many beautiful things in this class. From then on that is how I spent my spare time.

Besides farming, Father operated sheepshearing and dipping corral. My mother cooked for the shearers and other men employed at the corral. About 1899 the sulphur works opened up in the south side of the valley of Wood Canyon and mother boarded the men that worked at the sulphur works. She boarded these men for three summers, having as many as 75 to 100 for a meal. I and two hired girls helped mother with all this work. I was kept plenty busy, but learned much that helped me later in life.

The family in 1925

As my brothers grew up they took homesteads around Father's farm until eventually father and his sons owned and farmed all of the Wood Canyon country.

Around 1899 John Porcher Mikesell came to Soda Springs and worked for my father. He was originally from Paradise, Cache County, Utah. He was born 1 April 1879, a son of John Cunningham Mikesell and Charity Emma Porcher. We courted for around three years and then we were married 3 November 1902 at Boise, Ada County, Idaho. We lived in Boise about two years. My first child, Emma Mae, was born while we were in Boise.

In 1904 we came back to Soda Springs and homesteaded southeast of my father's farm in Wood Canyon. Here I gave birth to seven more children. Times were hard and to help pay for necessities I churned and sold thirty pounds of butter a week, seldom getting more than ten cents a pound.

In 1910, after my fifth child was born, I had milk leg and was in bed for nine weeks. The doctor thought I would not be able to walk again. I was determined I was going to walk because I now had five children and I knew they needed my care. After nine weeks I was able to sit up. Each morning I would try to get up on my feet. Finally I was able to put one knee on a chair and push it in front of me to get around and do some of the work of caring for the family.

We started to moving in town in the winters to let the children go to school. The winter of 1911 I helped Dr. Kackley for the first time with a confinement case. After that I went out on several confinement cases with Dr. Kackley until 1915.

Four generations: Iona Beus Mikesell(seated), Charlotte M. Gunnell(standing), Shirley Gunnell Clegg(seated) and Ja Layne Clegg(baby)

On the 27th of January 1915, at the delayed birth of my seventh child, I sent for Dr. Kackley. Despite the temperature of forty degrees below zero, and the protests from his family and the fact that he was sick in bed with blood poisoning, Dr. Kackley had a bed made for him in a sleigh, made the call and supervised the delivery from a stretcher.

In 1917 our home in Wood Canyon and all its contents were destroyed by fire.

We lived in a tent for several months with very little to eat and very few clothes. Then we bought a home in town and moved the family in for the winter.

My mother died 29 July 1919 and a few months after that I was asked to act as Relief Society secretary. I served in this capacity for seventeen years, under four presidents.

In 1915 I began to help Dr. Tigert, who had come to Soda Springs that same year, in confinement cases and I continued to assist him for the next twenty-five years. I took some maternity cases into my home until the maternity ward was added to the hospital. Later I nursed in this ward for three years. For twenty-seven years I helped E. D. Whitman to prepare the dead for burial and cleaned and kept the mortuary in order.

On the 25th of February 1923 I gave birth to my ninth child, a girl. I named her Beulah. Then again on 26th of October 1930 I had my tenth child, another girl; this making four boys and six girls: Emma Mae, John Louis, Charlotte, Ernest Wilburn, Edwin Carl, Vivian, Clarence Gerald, Myrtle, and Lillian. My father died 12 August 1927 in our home, after a long illness.

In the winter of 1930-31 an epidemic of spinal meningitis broke out in Soda Springs and Ernest got this disease. He was very sick. The doctors did not give us much hope for his life. I was up day and night with him for days. He finally did get over this.

Again, on the 26th of December 1935 tragedy struck. My son, Ernest, my brother, Edmund and my nephew Edmund Charles Beus were killed in a train-car accident in Soda Springs.

It has been hard supporting my large family, but the children have been good to help in any way they could. They are all married now. My husband died 13 March 1957 in Soda Springs and is buried in the Fairview cemetery in Soda Springs.

At present I live alone and support myself.

The last few years I have visited several times with my daughter, Lillian, in California and took my first airplane ride. Iona died 8 February 1971 in Soda Springs at the age of 84 and is buried in the Fairview cemetery in Soda Springs.

John Porcher Mikesell

John Porcher Mikesell was born 1 April 1879 in Morgan, Morgan County, Utah, a son of John Cunningham Mikesell and Charity Emma Porcher.

His father, John C. Mikesell, born 24 Aug 1837 in Indiana, a son of Garrett Walls Mikesell and Ruth Cunningham, came to Utah about 1863 with his first wife, Sarah Elizabeth Skinner, and their son, Andrew Jackson Mikesell. Their first son, Levi, had died in 1861 in Iowa. Six more children were born to this union: John, Cathren, William Wesley, Joseph Alma, Laura Ann, and Eli Delbert -- making eight in all.

Emma Charity Porcher, born 8 October 1842 in Cambridge, England, a daughter of James Porcher and Sophia Adams, came to Utah with her parents about 1862.

John C. Mikesell married Charity Emma Porcher 27 Oct. 1866, now having two families to care for. This second wife presented him with eleven children, three boys and eight girls: Charity Prudence, Alice Sophis, Hannah Marie, Samuel Vernie, Sarah Ellen, Charles Vernan, Amelia Drucela, John Porcher, Eliza, Louise (twins), and Francis Elizabeth.

The father's name being John and each wife having a son, John, was quite confusing, so they called the father Big John, one son Little John, and the other John Porcher.

When my father, John Porcher, was a baby, he, with the rest of the family moved to Paradise, Cache County, Utah. There the twins, Eliza and Louise, were born in 1881 and in 1883 Frances Elizabeth was born.

Times were very hard, having very little to feed the family. My grandmother and her eleven children were living in a tent in the mouth of the canyon about six or seven miles east of Paradise. Francis was just a few months old when grandfather took his first wife and family and moved to Idaho, leaving my grandmother and her family.

After a short time they had no food in their tent to eat, so grandmother called her oldest daughter to her and told her to keep all the children in the tent until she returned. She said she was going to walk to town and get some help. She left early that morning for she had about fourteen miles to walk to get back home before dark. When she reached Paradise she went to the bishop and told him of her circumstances. He got his team and wagon and some groceries, with his counselors he and grandmother started back up the canyon. When he saw the family hadn't eaten for several days and had very few clothes to keep them warm, he loaded them all in the wagon with their belongings and took them back to Paradise.

Grandmother told the bishop she was willing to do any kind of work she could to support her family. So he helped her to get work. She did washings and ironings; she helped other families in their homes, and if they could not pay her she took vegetables, milk, butter, meat or any thing the family could use for her pay.

This is the way she supported her family until they were old enough to support themselves. When she had just the three youngest left home she married George Webb, who was born 1 Jan 1827. He had been married before, but had lost his wife. He was very good to grandmother and her family, providing for her until his death 14 Aug 1906. Grandmother died 22 Aug 1911 in Paradise and is buried there beside her husband George Webb.

My father went to school in Paradise for about three years. He very seldom wore shoes because his mother could not afford to buy them for him. In the winter he went to school barefooted through the snow. He has said he would run as fast as he could for a ways then sit down and hold his feet to warm them, then jump up and run again. He was baptized a member of the L.D.S. church 2 June 1887.

When he was ten years old his oldest sister, Charity, got married, so he went to live with them. He worked for his brother-in-law for his keep and would go to school in the winter. He lived with them for about three years then he went to herding sheep. He never got any more schooling, but with his work he was able to support himself and help his mother a little. This work took him to several places in Utah and Idaho. When he was 18 years old he was herding sheep near Soda Springs for Will Terry.

Louis Beus owned and operated a dipping and shearing corral east of Soda Springs in Wood Canyon, where many sheep were brought in the spring to be shorn. It was here that he first met my mother, Iona Beus.

A couple of years later he went to work for Louis P. Beus for a while, then he got a job at the sulphur mines about a mile south of the Beus farm in wood canyon. He worked here until September 1902, when he went to Boise to work on a prune farm.

In November of that year Iona joined him in Boise and they were married the 3rd of November 1902. She was the daughter of Louis P. Beus and Mary Terry. They lived in Boise two years. Iona had come back to Soda Springs to visit her parents, while she was visiting her parents she became very ill. So father gave up his job and sold everything they had for a ticket home, to be with his wife. Their first child, Emma May, was born while in Boise.

They stayed then and and homesteaded in Wood Canyon, just south and east of grandfather Beus's farm. Eight more children were born to them while they lived on their farm in Wood Canyon: John Louis, Charlotte, Ernest Wilburn, Edwin Carl, Vivian, Clarence Gerald, Myrtle and Beulah.

In the spring of 1929 he went to Ogden, Utah and stayed with his niece Enola Fredrickson while

RUDETH BEUS AND IRENE LEONA DENSLEY

Rudeth Beus, Caribou Mining Camp

Rudeth Beus

Rudeth Beus, 60, life-long resident of Caribou County, passed away Thursday morning [23 Feb 1950] at about three a.m. at his home of a heart attack.

Mr. Beus had been ill for a considerable time.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 1:00 p.m. at Soda Springs, with Bishop W. G. Dredge of the L.D.S. ward officiating.

Mr. Beus was born in Springs on July 8, 1890, son Louis and Mary Beus. He was married June 7, 1916 to Leona Densley in Pocatello.

In 1932 he moved to Gray's Lake and engaged in farming. In 1947 he returned with his family to Soda Springs.

Besides his widow, Leona, he is survived by two sons, Leon and Arnold of Gray, Idaho; four daughters, Thelma Erb of Blackfoot and Freda Hines of Soda Springs and Jean and Verna Beus of Soda Springs. Two sons, Kenneth and William, preceded him in death.

Surviving also are the following brothers and sisters: Albert Beus of Soda Springs, Leslie Beus of San Mateo, California, Wilburn Beus of Carlin, Nevada, Emma Hildreth of Long Beach, California, Wanda Pulver of Salt Lake City, Meletha Jones of Bingham, Utah, Iona Mikesell of Soda Springs. Six grandchildren survive.

Services are under the direction of the Whitman Funeral Home.

Irene Leona Densley

I cried my first earthly cry on 20th of September 1897. I was the third girl and middle child in a family of eleven children. My dear mother was aided and comforted during by birth by a midwife, Sister Blake. They say I was an average sized child and weighed approximately seven pounds. I enjoyed my first days on earth at home in Riverton, Utah. My parents were Areminta Wardel and Daniel Densley Jr.

My parents were members of the L.D.S. church so I was blessed at one month old. I was blessed the first Sunday of October 1897 by the bishop.

We stayed put in a small town, Riverton, Utah. We lived in a new large adobe brick house and the years slipped quickly past as I developed from a dependent baby to a toddler, and survived the following diseases in my pre-school years: none. My father's grandparents were living in their own home until their deaths. They were Daniel Densley Sr. and Sarah Beech. I don't remember them too well because they died while I was real young. They lived about twelve miles from us in Bluffdale, Utah.

My mother's grandparents were living in their own home until death. They lived far away from us in St. Anthony, Idaho. We used to go see them on the train. I do remember them well. They were Isaac John Wardel and Martha Egbert. Grandpa always wore a lumber jack coat or a big overcoat with big pockets, and he always had candy in them.

I was fairly smart and blessed with a good memory, blessed with faith and they tell this story about me. They used to stand me on the table and I sang for candy. I was only four years old and Grandpa Wardel is the one that taught me to do this. I sang "Mary Had a Little Lamb", "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star," and "Pop Goes the Weasel." I learned to pray from Grandma Wardel. I always loved to go to Grandma Wardel's because she made curlers (or twists) and donuts. No one could make them like her and she always gave us a bag of them to take home on the train with us.

The deaths I remember in my family was that of my little sister Thelma Grace, age two. She was born on the 4th of May 1905. She died at midnight on the 18 April 1907 from mouse poison. Annie May, age four, also my sister, poured water in a pan with the poison in it for Thelma Grace and she was drinking it when father saw them, but it was too late, she had already drunk too much. Mother knew there was poison in the pan.

I remember another interesting experience. My half-sister, Elva, used to come get me from a date and send me and my friend home on the train in an open car. Then she and her friend would jump off the train. But by the time we had seen them the train was going too fast for us to get off and we were on the trestle.

I married Rudeth Beus the 7th of June 1916. We lived in Soda Springs, Idaho. We had eight children: Kenneth R., Thelma Louise, Leon Paul, Arnold Ray, Willard (stillborn), Freda Mae, Verla Jean, and Varna Arlene. Rudeth was a farmer all his life, and a good provider. We always had all we could eat and he was an excellent butcher. We moved from Soda Springs to Gray, Idaho and lived there for thirteen years. Then we bought a lot in Soda Springs, and built a home there. We ran a motel in 1948 and 1949 while the house Willis Erb drew up plans for was being built, and he also helped build it. Rudeth passed away on the 23rd of February 1950.

Two years later I married John Henry Jensen, on the 16th of September 1952, and we lived in Pocatello, Idaho. I met him at a dance in Pocatello and he asked me for a date. We had many vacations which I thought I would never have. We enjoyed many sports together and went to almost all the games together.

One of the grandest vacations we took was to Victoria, British Columbia, where we spent a wonderful week.

We had seven very happy years together before he passed away on the 9th of August 1960. John worked for the railroad and was a very good man.

I have spent the rest of my life helping my children. I am now 75 years old [in 1972] and will live the rest of my life in Blackfoot, Idaho.

-- Irene Leona Densley Beus Jensen

Additional material from a Eulogy by her granddaughter, Shirlie Hines Jenkins:

In about 1961 she [Irene] lived in Hawaii with her daughter, Verna, and her family for three years. She loved the flowers and the hula girls as well as seeing the sights, especially the Hawaiian temple.

In August of 1969, Willis and Thelma Erb moved Irene and her trailer to their farm near Blackfoot, Idaho, where she lived until 1976, when she and her daughter, Thelma, moved to Kamiah, Idaho. After having her first stroke in 1977 she moved in with her daughter, Freda and John Lamb, also of Kamiah.

In 1970 the Lamb's and Irene moved to Battle Ridge, just outside of Kooskia, Idaho, where she remained until her death.

She suffered many strokes and had been in ill health for the last five years of her life. She had a strong faith in God and Jesus Christ and tried hard to instill this desire to serve the Lord in each of her children and grandchildren.

She was the reason I became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Because of her fine example and love, I thought that if angels were on earth, she was one. Many of her posterity have followed her fine, righteous example.

She held various positions within the Church

Irene loved to cook and was a very good cook and homemaker. We all loved to go to her home. She did beautiful crochet work and made many afghans. She loved to sing and was always singing around the house. She played the piano by ear. She loved to dance whenever she had the opportunity. For example, at the age of four her grandfather had a coat with big pockets (full of treats) and he would get her to get up on the table and dance for a treat from his pocket.

Irene's complexion was beautiful, truly peaches and cream, and she took good care of herself.

Grandfather Louis Beus, who lived with Rudeth and Irene, always called her "Girl." Rudeth called her "Shorty."

She was loved by all who came to know her. She was an important part of her family and she shall be deeply missed. However we know she is working with our Father in Heaven.

MOHLETA BEUS, ISAAC JOHN DENSLEY AND JOSEPH DWIGHT PORTER

Mohleta Beus

My name is Mohleta Beus Densley. I was born in Soda Springs, Idaho on July 17, 1893 to Louis Phillip Beus and Mary Terry. I was the tenth child in a family of thirteen children.

When I finished high school in Soda Springs, I went to Logan, Utah to attend the Kester Dressmaking College. I enjoyed the training I received there. I have been an expert in dressmaking all my life. It has made me a good living.

I married Isaac John Densley on September 13, 1913 in Soda Springs. I made my own white satin dress for the wedding. Mother made me a beautiful wedding cake. Our good neighbors, Brother and Sister Fairbou were the witnesses. I remember my brother, Edmund, gave us a five-dollar bill for a wedding gift. We lived in Soda for a short time and then went to Border, Wyoming to live near his brother, Ray and wife, Ada.

We moved back to Soda where our oldest child, Norman John, was born. We lived on a dry farm just east of Soda in a small two-room house. Here our second child, Thelma, was born and died at birth. We moved into Soda, and I was working for my parents in the laundry when I got my hand caught in a sheet and ran it through the hot mangle. I have had a crippled hand all my life. It has been hard to work and has given me much pain.

At this time I was pregnant and lost our baby, Joel, at birth. He is buried in the Soda Springs Cemetery. Our next baby was a boy, born at my parents' home. We named him Richard LeVern. We moved to Salt Lake later to Riverton and then to Bingham Canyon, where Melba, Douglas and Jack Beus were born. We lived in Bingham for forty-one years.

When Melba was about two and one-half she fell into a bucket of scalding hot water and later died from the burns. She is buried in the Murray City Cemetery.

My husband, Jack, had spinal meningitis and was so very sick. In fact, his health never did get any better and he died. He was buried in the Murray City Cemetery beside his daughter, Melba.

I married Joseph Porter. He had a small daughter (her mother died when she was born). I raised her to womanhood, and she married Boyd Whetsel.

Mohleta Beus and Isaac John Densley on their wedding day

When the Kennecott Copper Company bought all the homes in Bingham I was forced to move. Dick took the money from my home in Bingham and built me a good home in Midvale. Soon after I moved there my son, Jack, lost his wife, Lois, and this left him with four small children, so I raised them for three and one-half years until he married again.

Mohleta Beus Densley Porter

The past three years my health has been real poor so my son, Bill, has lived here with me and taken good care of me. I will be ninety years old by the time this history is written. I have had to work hard all my life, but I am proud of all my children and grand children. It is a joy to know they are all good religious parents and take good care of me.

EMMA MATILDA BEUS AND FAY EDWARD HILDRETH

Emma Matilda Beus Hildreth and Fay Edward Hildreth with their daughter, Mary Ann, and her husband, Clarence
B. Hansen

Emma Beus

On December 26, 1900, I was born in the little town of Soda Springs, Idaho in the old George Horsley home. I lived there until I met and married Fay E. Hildreth, December 15, 1919.

Our first son, Donald E. Hildreth, was born in our home on Hooper Avenue. When he was eight months old we moved to Long Beach, California. In 1924 we moved to Burlingame, California, where Dean was born, at 225 Stanley Road. In 1927 we moved back to Long Beach and were there when the big earthquake struck, which we survived with no ill effects.

In 1934 Mary Ann was born in a hospital on Atlantic Avenue. In 1962 we moved back to Soda Springs. Fay was sick and had a lot of surgery, then he died August 13, 1974. I tried to stay there for two years, but decided the winters were too cold, so I sold my home and moved to Nogales, Arizona where my daughter lived. We have now moved to Mesa, Arizona.

WANDA ANNETTA BEUS AND STIRLEY FRISBY PULVER

Wanda Annette Beus

My name is Wanda Annette Beus, and I am the twelfth child in a family of thirteen. My parents were Louis Phillip Beus and Mary Terry. I was born on October 13, 1902. Alice Gillett, mother's sister, was there to take care of us. She said I looked like a little papoose, I was so dark, so she named me Wanda, from the moment I was born.

We lived on a beautiful farm just east of Soda Springs. I enjoyed my early childhood there. I graduated from Soda Springs High School.

After the death of my mother in 1920 I stayed home to take care of my father. Later I went to live with my sister, Emma Hildreth, in Long Beach, California. My father came to me in the fall. I met and married Stirley Frisby Pulver on April 19, 1924, in Long Beach.

We came to Salt Lake City and had our endowments on April 10, 1925. We remained in Salt Lake City and lived with his parents until our first child was born. We returned to Long Beach and Stirley worked at the Rex Green Printing Shop.

After the earthquake in 1933 we returned to Utah and settled in Payson. We lived there a short time and then came in to Salt Lake City, where we have lived the rest of our lives.

We were blessed with two daughters and two sons -- Stirley, Nadine, Keith, and Carolyn. They are all married and live in Salt Lake except Nadine who lives in Waynesboro, Virginia. At this time I have 21 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

My husband and I have had a very happy life together. We especially enjoyed fishing and camping. Our garden and yard were always interesting. We took many wonderful trips with our children and grandchildren. We were both active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was secretary of the High Priest's Quorum at the time of his death, July 5, 1974.

I have had the wonderful opportunity of serving in many positions in the church and do a lot temple work. I have a sincere testimony of the truthfulness of the Gospel and have tried hard to be a good example to all who know me.
